Museum as classroom

North Dakota history comes alive at Prairie Village Museum. As students explore our historic buildings, they learn about the region's immigrant settlers and get a feeling for what life was like in North Dakota's early prairie towns. They view Native American artifacts, antique cars, even an iron lung. And everyone loves Clifford "The Scandinavian Giant" Thompson.

NEW! Mini Talks: With advanced notice we can arrange a mini talk on a subject of your choosing: Cook Car Cooking; Law and Order; Hello, Operator - Early Phone Service; Butter & Eggs (butter-making demo); School Days; and Taming the Land: Farming the Prairie.
